

REVITALIZE
ENERGY

Engineer (Chemical, Project)

Revitalize Energy Inc. is a rapidly growing junior oil and gas producer, leading the way to sustainable production using biobased chemistry, while balancing an asset portfolio. With assets across both Alberta and Saskatchewan in the Lloydminster region, Revitalize is currently seeking a full time Intermediate Engineer based out of Calgary. The position will report to the Operations Manager. The Engineer will be key in managing a portfolio of wells in Alberta and Saskatchewan through optimization and enhancement technologies. Other responsibilities will include, but not limited to, wells with workovers and stimulation, reactivations, re-entries, recompletions, full area development planning, decrease operations costs projects and improving area netbacks.

Required Competencies:

- Detail orientated and organized.
- Project management and project cost control.
- Posses strong verbal and written communication skills and interpersonal skills.
- Accountable to all assigned duties.
- Proactive approach to problem solving and works collaboratively.
- Is nimble and adaptable.
- Able to Multitask and get things done.

Qualifications:

- University Degree in an engineering discipline.
- Member of APEGA.
- 5-8 years related Oil and Gas Experience with preferred experience in Heavy Oil Operations.
- PMP or equivalent.
- Assist to ensure production operations remain in compliance with regulations.
- Must have strong understanding of MS suite.
- Chemical or Project background preferred.
- Vendor and Safety compliance experience would be an asset.
- Project work may consist of moderate to high complexity starting from research and design to field implementation to meet the company's objectives.
- Experience with Prodman, Petroninja, P2 (Qbyte, CSLand), PowerBI/Excel, SharePoint, Complyworks, Openinvoice would be an asset.
- Valid drivers license and commitment to safety.

Key Responsibilities:

- Design and implementing projects that reducing operations costs.
- Create workover programs for upcoming service rig activities.
- Help with special field projects that lead innovative ways to cut operation costs.
- Ensure timely reporting is completed to management.

- Must ensure Asset Retirement databases are kept current daily to ensure real time statuses for reporting purposes.
- Prompt reporting of regulatory submissions for both AB and SK.
- Support field operations with tracking and reporting of material transfers related to equipment.
- Drive continuous improvement with the company's processes and procedures.
- Support field operations with safety requirements.
- Continuous education of technologies and innovations that will enhance the corporations' efficiencies and overall value.
- Support the development and implementation of Carbon Emissions program.
- Maintain cost control and support budget planning, AFE requestions, etc.
- Manage Regulatory Inspections.

Revitalize recognizes and values the personnel required to drive the success of the organization and takes pride in a team orientated culture, nurturing work life balance. If working in an energetic, creative and engaged team setting interests you, please send your resume to careers@reenergyinc.com and reference in the email subject: Environmental Coordinator Position.

This posting will remain open until a suitable candidate has been selected.

Posted: June , 2021

Full time / employee

Revitalize Energy Inc.